*Elders elected to preside in absence of bishop.

In 1844 the great division occurred, and in 1845 the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was organized. Continuous activity in Holston Conference Methodist Episcopal Church was abandoned until the close of the Civil War. In 1865 the Holston Conference was re-organized at Athens, Tennessee, under the Presidency of Bishop David W. Clark.

(Deceased)

MEMOIRS

MRS. T. G. CHASE

Mrs. Sophia S. Chase was born near Ellijoy, Ga., Sept. 14, 1849. She was married to the Rev. T. G. Chase March 22, 1881. After a brief illness Mrs. Chase died in Cleveland, Tenn., Aug. 13, 1925.

The deceased was a devout Christian, a loving wife, and an ideal stepmother. For twenty-one years she was a faithful and loyal member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Cleveland, Tenn., and those who knew her best loved her best.

The funeral services were conducted in the church of which she was a member, by her pastor, Rev. Walter A. Smith, assisted by Dr. G. W. Coleman, for many years a special friend of the family.

Mrs. Chase was laid to rest beside her husband in Forthill Cemetery, Cleveland, Tenn.

JOHN SANDERS

Rev. John Sanders was born in Union County, Tennessee, April 22, 1867, and died at Maryville, Tenn., Dec. 17, 1924. He was fifty-seven years, seven months and twenty-five days of age when he was called to his heavenly reward.

He was happily married to Miss Louise Jones Jan. 20, 1886. His faithful wife shared with him the trials and hardships of the Methodist ministry.

He entered Murphy College in Sevierville, Tenn., in 1895 and remained there for three years. After leaving college he entered the Holston annual conference. The minutes say: Admitted on trial, Holston Conference, 1901; full membership, 1904; ordained Deacon by Bishop Warren, 1904; Elder by Bishop McDowell, 1906. He was ordained Deacon at Newport and Elder at Greeneville, Tenn.

He served the following charges: Daisy, 1901; Graysville, 1902-5; Whitewell, 1905-06; Daisy, 1906-7; Maryville Circuit, 1908-14; Townsend and Walland, 1915; Inskip, 1916-18; Lonsdale, 1919-21; Conference Evangelist, 1922; West Maryville, 1923; Sy, 1924.

He left school and entered upon the Conference course of study and graduated from this course and became a very efficient minister of Jesus Christ. He soon developed into a very strong evangelistic personality, hence his labors were always blessed with revivals. He can number his own converts by the hundreds. He was a fine preacher in revival campaigns. He did his work well.

He made many personal friends wherever he labored. The last two or three years of his life he was not very strong. He ran for the office of Trustee of Blount County, 1923, and was elected by a large majority, but was so ill that he never entered his office after having been elected.

His funeral services were conducted by the Rev. G. T. Byrd, Dr. G. T. Francisco and Rev. S. P. Angel in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Maryville, Tenn., Dec. 18, 1924. He was buried in the Magnolia Cemetery, Maryville, Tenn.

He is survived by his widow and two brothers, Rev. Press Sanders and . He was a faithful gospel minister. He loved to sing the "Old Rugged Cross" and "The City Four Square." He has entered into that everlasting rest that remains for the people of God.

MRS. S. G. KETRON

Mrs. Fannie A. Smith Ketron was born July 30, 1864, died May 10, 1925. Mrs. Ketron professed faith in Christ at Kingsley Seminary in November, 1878, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which she lived a loyal and consistent member until she was called to the church triumphant.

She was married to the Rev. Samuel G. Ketron February 1, 1883, and to this union two sons were born, Ekron P. and Marshall L. Ketron. The husband, the two sons, five grandchildren, two sisters, two brothers survive to mourn their incalculable loss.

Sister Ketron was confirmed in her convictions that religion should show itself both in conduct and profession. She had but little patience for religious shams; but firmly believed in a religion that brushed aside all hypocrisy and ripened into wholesome service for mankind. This she emphasized by her unselfish service for others. Having reared her own two sons to manhood, she adopted a little homeless two-year-old girl and reared her to womanhood, carefully guarding her against the social wiles of the day. When her son Marshall's wife died leaving three little helpless children, with no woman hand to guide them and no mother heart to love them, she took them to her own bosom and tenderly cared for them until the end came. The one desire of her heart was to live long enough to see them large enough to care for themselves, but it was willed otherwise.

As a Methodist preacher's wife for forty-two years she saw her share of the toil and cares incident to a minister's wife in the caring for the home and aiding in the spiritual and material work of the church. She conceived the idea that the community in which her home was located needed a church, she set about to collect the money with which to build a church, paying largely herself to it, and the Vermont church stands a monument to her faith and labor. Only the coming years can measure her sacrificial life.

Her funeral was conducted by the Rev. I. B. Leonard, assisted by the local ministers of Kingsport, and her body was laid to rest in the New Cemetery of Kingsport, and her spirit is pillowed in the bosom of the Father of All the Earth.

REV. NATHANIEL K. ROWE

The Rev. Nathaniel K. Rowe, son of L. D. and Rachel Rowe, was born in Unicoi County, Tennessee, May 3, 1868. He passed to his eternal rest from his home at Chuckey, Tenn., on April 30, 1925, lacking but three days of his fifty-seventh anniversary.

He began his life work as a teacher in his native county and continued in this work for fifteen years. He was a graduate of Lexington University and was an eminently successful teacher, being one of the leaders of the profession in his county.

He was twice married. His first wife, Miss Delia Price, died a few years after their marriage, having borne him three children, two of whom, Herman J. Rowe, Pocomoke City, Md., and Mrs. H. L. Keesecker, Erwin, Tenn., survive him. In 1900 he was married to Miss Mary E. McLaughlin and to this union were born three children, Mrs. Carl Fitzgerald, Greeneville, Tenn., Walter and Theodore Rowe, both of Chuckey, Tenn.

Under a deep conviction of the call of God he entered the ministry, joining the Holston Conference in 1911. He was admitted into full connection and ordained Elder by Bishop Henderson in 1913. He served Bloomingdale, Fall Branch, Baileyton, Parrottsville, Athens, Chuckey and Morristown Circuits with splendid success. He denounced sin with the courage of a Daniel but loved the sinner with a love kin to that of Jesus.

His was a sacrificial ministry. Others left their gifts before the altar, he placed himself upon the altar. The last four years of his ministry was greatly hindered by a mysterious illness that preyed upon his physical strength until he was sometimes unable to stand in the pulpit during the whole time of the sermon. He would not give up until the last session of the annual conference he reluctantly agreed to a year's rest.

The end came suddenly but not unexpected. He expressed a willing resignation to the will of God and was in great peace. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. K. Harris of Greeneville at the old home near Unicoi. His aged mother, scores of relatives and a host of sympathetic friends estimated at one thousand people were in attendance. The body was laid to rest in the beautiful little cemetery on the hilltop near his early home under the solemn and impressive ceremonies of the Masonic fraternity.

REPORTS

BRISTOL DISTRICT

J. F. REED, Superintendent

The Bristol District consists of five stations, four half stations and nineteen circuits, which pay an average salary to the pastors including house rent, of one thousand and eight dollars.

We began the conference year on the District with all of the charges supplied with a pastor. J. W. Barnes, a supply pastor on the Pattons-ville charge, gave up the work in the middle of the year, and W. F. Barber, a local preacher, was appointed in his place. Brother Barber has succeeded with the work. J. S. Yearly gave up the pastorate of the Wise Circuit and the charge was without a pastor at the end of the year. J. M. Gambill was released from the Radford charge the first of September to enter school at Tennessee Wesleyan College, and J. D. Harris, a supernumerary member of this conference, finished out the year.

We have dedicated this year, Reeds Chapel on the Fries charge and Heltons Chapel on the Konnarock charge, these churches cost something like $2000 each. Barkers Chapel on the Hilton charge has been moved to Phillips, a small station on the Southern Railway, and will be dedicated the fourth Sunday in October. Pine View Church, on the Radford charge, and Cabin Creek Chapel Church, on the Konnarock charge, should be ready for dedication within the next six months. Plans are being made for new churches at Hilton and Fries which will cost around $6,000 each. "The dream of a second church for Roanoke has begun to materialize, with a lot already bought and paid for. We see no reason why the first unit should not be completed within the next conference year."

Construction on the First Church at Roanoke will begin at once, and the first unit will be completed within the next few months.

The most outstanding achievement in church building has been accomplished at Pennington Gap. The lot where the old church burned last year was traded for a new location in the early spring, and under the efficient leadership of the pastor, D. B. Cooper, a modern church was begun, which will be completed next year at a cost around $25,000. The fourth quarterly conference was held in the auditorium September 27th.

We have paid on old indebtedness and improvements on church and parsonage property $17,775.

World Service collections should show an increase over last year.

Pastors salaries were increased $1,120.00 over last year and for the most part will be paid in full. It has been a very difficult matter to reach our financial goals this year, due to the extreme drought which extended to every corner of the district.

Our District Conference was held in July at Centenary on the Marion charge. All of the pastors were present except four, which was a large factor in making the conference a success. Dr. Bishop of Murphy Collegiate Institute, Dr. Kilburn of Tennessee Wesleyan College and Dr. Brown, president of the Chattanooga University, were present and gave splendid addresses. Drs. Newland, Johnson, Powell and Smith, sent out by the World Service Commission, were present on the first day of the conference and gave a very helpful program.

We have held group meetings during the year in which Evangelism and World Service had the right-of-way. The Rev. Walter Smith, pastor of First Church at Cleveland, Tenn., was with us at our Bristol group meeting and gave an instructive message on personal Evangelism.

Dr. Kilburn has given much time and labor to the district this year, lecturing, preaching and helping the pastors with their problems.

The Rev. LeRoy Martin spent several days in the district during the month of August giving illustrated lectures and helping with World Service collections.

Miss Swartz, a Field Secretary of the W. H. M. Society, spent a month in the district during the latter part of the year, and as a result of her work we have seven new W. H. M. Societies.

Revivals have been held in almost all of the churches, which resulted in 990 conversions and 815 accessions to the church, for the most part pastors have held their own revivals.

Our Epworth League work is not what it should be in the district, however we have had some growth this year. Several new Leagues have been organized. We hope to see a League put into every church on the district.

The Sunday School work is one of great importance, and we are glad to report a growing interest in the work. The First Church at Bristol has had an increase in enrollment over last year of 124.

Mrs. E. H. Ogle, wife of our St. Charles pastor, was taken to the hospital in September for an operation, and we are glad to report that she is slowly recovering. Monroe Ball, pastor of the Russell charge, and O. C. Melton, pastor at Salem, have had typhoid fever during the summer, but have both recovered, and are in attendance at conference.

As to my own work I have traveled by every fashion known to man in this country except the airplane.

I have given all of my time to the work. I am grateful to my Heavenly Father for strength to do another year's work for Him.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. REED, Supt.

CHATTANOOGA DISTRICT

M. P. MURPHY, District Superintendent

The conference year opened with practically every charge supplied with a pastor, but by the end of the year several changes had been made. In May, P. R. Broyles, pastor of the John A. Patten Community Center, was released from the work and the charge was without a pastor to the end of the year. M. J. Brown, pastor of Red Bank, on account of failing health, was released from the charge in July and B. M. Morrison became pastor and finished up a good year's work. Lloyd G. Davis, pastor at Daisy, Cranston Clayton, pastor of Jasper Circuit, upon their own request were released. V. C. Nichols took charge at Daisy and C. A. Athearn at Jasper. H. E. Murkett, after a successful pastorate of six years at First Church, Chattanooga, was transferred by Bishop Thirkield to Racine, Wis., and Charles A. Briggs of Racine became pastor of First Church on October 1. Wm. M. Dye, pastor at Etowah, has been very ill much of the year on account of an operation. He is able to resume his work and has closed a good year at Etowah. During his illness, Brother Dye had the faithful assistance of Prof. F. H. Carey who, with the assistance of the official board, carried on the work in a very fine way. Mrs. W. L. Pickering, wife of our pastor at St. James Church, was in the hospital last summer as a result of an operation, and two of the Pickering children were ill at the same time with scarlet fever. Mrs. H. E. Murkett was again in the hospital for several weeks during the summer and underwent another serious operation. We are glad to report that all these afflicted ones have either recovered or are on the way to full recovery.

In spite of drouth which has reduced the crops to about one-half their usual yield, and very unfavorable conditions in our coal fields, the Chattanooga District will have substantial gains over last year along almost all lines of church work. We have insisted everywhere on full payment of pastor's salaries and all other local claims which for the most part will be met in full. Most of the shortage will be in the rural sections where the drouth has hit hardest.

We will probably have a gain over last year for World Service of between $1,500 and $2,000. We are expecting to reach a total of about $15,000 for World Service and about $20,000 for disciplinary benevolences. We have spent $63,000 for building and improvement of church and parsonage property, and paid more than $11,000 on old indebtedness. There being no money appropriated to the district by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension for building purposes this year, several of our most important building projects have been postponed until next year or until such time as help can be secured from the Board. A few of the churches, however, have gone ahead with their work without assistance from the Board.

Welch's Chapel, Mt. Airy Circuit, was built, in the main, last year but was finished up and dedicated this year free of debt at a total cost of $4,000. Manker Memorial people have completed the auditorium of the new church and services are being held in the same. The Sunday School department is on the way to completion. When finished this will be one of the very best, most up-to-date churches in Chattanooga and in Holston Conference. St. James has spent several thousand dollars on church property this year. Both the church and parsonage have been re-decorated; additional Sunday school room provided and a new heating plant installed. Athens has raised $2,000 on church debt and spent $500 on improvements. Highland Park has paid the last $2,000 on mortgage which clears the church of debt. St. Marks has paid $2,500 on debt; St. James $1,200; Etowah $1,300; Cleveland $1,000; Copper Hill $1,788; Red Bank $700; Alton Park $500 on debt and $600 on improvements; and First Church has paid $1,500 on church improvement. Other churches have paid smaller amounts on debts and improvements.

Special emphasis has been placed upon evangelism this year. Most all churches in Chattanooga held pre-Easter evangelistic services, stressing personal evangelism. Under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, Bishop Thirkield spoke daily at noon in the Tivoli Theatre, Chattanooga, during "Holy Week." The services were attended by ministers and people from all churches of the city, and general satisfaction was expressed by those in attendance, as to the helpfulness of these services. Churches outside of Chattanooga in the towns and rural sections of the district have had splendid revivals. As a result of faithful work on the part of pastors and people, more than 750 new members have been added to the churches of the district. This will probably reach 800 when the reports are tabulated.

We have not been able to check up on Sunday School and Epworth League enrollment but judging from increased interest manifested almost everywhere there will be substantial gains in enrollment in both these organizations. The women's work is on a firmer basis than the rest of our missionary program because they give more attention to education; are more systematic and keep up the missionary spirit. The educational side of our work is steadily on the increase. More Sunday schools are adopting the graded system of instruction, more attention is being given to teacher-training than before. Our young people are becoming more and more interested in the educational program of the Epworth League. Eighty-eight of our young people attended the Epworth League institute at Sevierville last summer. These returned to the local churches with great enthusiasm for the work. The last service of our district conference was given to the Epworth League for a program and rally. Delegations of young people came from various Leagues of the district in such numbers that the auditorium of St. James Church was filled. The program rendered by the young people was a fitting climax to the program of our district conference.

Our benevolent program is getting down to a firmer basis. Our people are beginning to abandon the idea which characterized the Centenary campaign, that our great benevolent program is simply an emergency to be met, a temporary matter which requires intense devotion and large giving simply for the time being, and are beginning to regard our increased benevolent program to be as vital to the work of the church as any other part of it. We are still suffering in some places, however, from our supposed victories of six years ago when unauthorized promises of large help were made to local churches which never materialized, when in some instances the appeal was made to a selfish motive in the local church to "go over the top" in order to secure in return large sums for local projects. We still feel the effects of the spirit of criticism which was so prevalent before and even after the meeting of the last General Conference, which criticism was probably necessary to correct some mistakes in legislation but at the same time, has done much harm in the practical working out of our program. While it may have proved constructive so far as the perfecting of our program is concerned, it has also proved hurtful in the application of the program. The cure for this condition of things seems to be for our preachers and leaders to present our benevolent program purely on its own merits and make no appeal to local interests; to assume a friendly attitude toward it; and dwell upon its commendable features and let the mistakes of the past rest. It will help, too, when we quit changing the name of our benevolent program. The common people prefer a permanent name for this program and a fixed policy in carrying it out. What we need most of all is a quickening and deepening of the benevolent spirit in the church which will enable the people to take the great commission seriously and our ministers to look upon all the world as our parish.

The University of Chattanooga continues to make splendid progress. During the year which has closed, $200,000 was added to the endowment. This was made possible by a gift of $50,000 from Mr. Adolphus S. Ochs to establish a Chair of Government, $66,667 from the General Education Board (founded by John D. Rockefeller) and the balance from Chattanooga citizens. The college closed its fiscal year on August 31st, with no indebtedness, and with $800,000 of productive endowment. The value of the buildings and grounds is easily over a million dollars, so it is reasonable to say that the institution has assets amounting to two million dollars. The total enrollment last year, not counting summer school students, was 504, divided as follows: Full time students, 356; extension students, 148. The entering class this fall will outnumber the entire enrollment of full-time students in 1920-21 (155).

President Brown reports that he is greatly encouraged by the number of students in the Freshman class coming from outside Hamilton County. Thirty-eight per cent of incoming students have prepared themselves in high schools outside of Hamilton County.

One of the outstanding events of the year was the separation of the Athens School from the University of Chattanooga, and its reorganization as Tennessee Wesleyan College, under a new charter. The action taken by the Board of Trustees of the University of Chattanooga at its annual meeting on June 9 was unanimous and the new institution has been launched with the best of good wishes from the University. By agreement all property in Athens was deeded to the new institution, together with endowment notes amounting to $162,176, and the income from $50,000 for three years. At the end of three years the principal will be transferred.

The new Board of Trustees of Tennessee Wesleyan College have begun their work with great enthusiasm and a splendid career is predicted for this old school under a new name which has meant so much for Christian education in this section of the country. President Robb reports a considerable increase in enrollment, particularly in the college department, where the enrollment the first of October was 82 as compared with 46 the first of October of last year. There is a total enrollment of 226, of these, 51 students are from the bounds of the Chattanooga District. The district should be more largely represented in both of these splendid schools. Realizing the benefits that come to our work through a trained leadership, our pastors and people should encourage their young people to attend our schools.

As to personal labors, I have traveled throughout the district as the discipline requires; held the usual quarterly meetings and conferences; helped pastors and churches as time and opportunity afforded. I have carried on a large correspondence, sending out about 2,000 letters in the interest of the work. I have had the hearty cooperation of pastors and people in every effort to carry on the work successfully, for which I am truly thankful.

HARRIMAN DISTRICT

H. M. HAWK, District Superintendent

The geographical boundry of the Harriman District has not been changed, though the number of pastoral charges has been reduced. Arthur, Liberty Hill, and New Tazewell charges have been re-arranged, so as to make two circuits, to be known as the Arthur Circuit, and the New Tazewell Circuit. The Newcomb charge, and the Jacksboro charge have been united under the name of Newcomb and Jacksboro Circuit.

At the last session of the Holston Conference twenty-six men were appointed to the charges of this district, but not all of them have served through the year. W. O. Duncan, pastor of the Decatur Circuit, gave up that charge to accept a position as preacher and teacher in a Kentucky mining town. To secure an experienced man, at that time appeared impossible, but George S. Denton, a young man recently licensed as a local preacher, accepted the charge, and under the circumstances, has closed the work of the year with a fair degree of success.

Near the close of the first quarter, S. P. Angel, one of our worthy retired men, who was doing supply work on the New Tazewell Circuit, asked to be excused from serving New Tazewell, and M. H. Prevett, pastor of the Arthur charge, was brought over, at the request of the leaders, to the New Tazewell charge, and William Dagley, a local preacher, was secured for the Arthur charge. Both of these men have worked hard, and in some respects will have the best reports that have been brought up from these churches in several years.

We have had no deaths in the ranks of our pastors this year, but Mrs. J. M. Hughes, wife of our pastor at Maynardville, was ill for several weeks, and Mrs. H. W. McDonald, wife of our Crossville pastor, was shut in for about two months. Both these ladies have recovered, and were able to assist their husbands in closing the work of the year.

Mrs. Branam, wife of E. R. Branam, pastor of our Oakdale church, was seriously ill for nine weeks, but with good medical attention, and careful nursing the crisis has been past, and we hope that she will be able to take her accustomed place in the church and parsonage life.

Mrs. J. J. Robinette, wife of our pastor at Harriman, has been confined to her room for the year, but her heart is with her husband in the work in which they have been engaged for almost half a century, while he has not given full time to his charge, he has rendered valuable service to our church.

Although the Harriman church has lost six families by removals to Florida and other places, the congregations have kept up well, and outstanding progress has been made in the liquidation of debts and the first time in several years the charge is free from financial embarrassment.

Other outstanding advances are at the Beaver Ridge church, near Byington, Tennessee, where the pastors salary was doubled, being raised from $600 to $1200, and at Oneida and Norma, where the pastors salary was advanced from $800 to $1500, and a new seven room bungalow has been purchased for a parsonage at a cost of $3000, on which $2200 has been paid.

Dr. John S. Burnette, Superintendent of Mountain Work of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, has made possible and led in the erection of a beautiful community school building near Brayton, Tenn., in the bounds of the Morgan Springs charge, at a cost of $5450. There is a spirit of co-operation among the people of the community, and the three teachers working in the school are rendering good service to a fine student body, helping the youths who are eager to prepare themselves for life's work to lay a foundation for usefulness.

Our pastor is in hearty accord with the school, and is working faithfully to advance the educational and spiritual interests of the kingdom, and it may be said of every pastor that in his field of labor he has done something worthy of honorable mention, and to call the honor roll would be to read the names of the pastors.

It is doubtful if there is a group of men anywhere whose faithful service and sacrifice will surpass the service and sacrifice of the preachers of the Harriman District. Though some of them have had trouble to keep the proverbial wolf from the door, they have believed the promises of an Almighty God, they have continued to pray and to preach, and the clouds rifted, the way out appeared, and God honored their work of faith and labor of love in the salvation of lost man.

This has been, I think, the hardest year financially in the history of the Harriman District; the mines shut down last year have not been opened, and many of the miners with their families have been compelled to move away in search of work. Last year some advance was made in agriculture with good returns for labor and investment, but the drought has practically ruined all crops. For this cause our payments on World Service will not be as much as we expected at the middle of the year. Some of our subscriptions will not be paid because of reverses in business and failure of crops. A number of men who have been accustomed to supporting the church and who have subscribed to World Service, say that they regret it very much but they can not pay now. How far this may affect final payments is difficult to tell, and how our work is to be maintained next year is a perplexing question, but we believe that the Methodist Episcopal Church must and will carry forward the great work that she has begun in this mountain territory.

About the middle of September the District Superintendent sent out questionnaires, in answer to which he received from the pastors the following information:

Number of days spent in revivals.....	570
Number of conversions and reclamations.....	1037
Number of accessions to our church.....	615
Increase in church membership.....	482
Amount paid on building and improvements.....	$ 6,958
Amount paid on old indebtedness.....	3,132
Amount paid on debts and improvements.....	10,088
Amount paid by Dr. Burnette on school building.....	5,450
Total paid on improvements, debts and building.....	15,538

Our District Conference convened at Jonesville, Tenn., July 14-16. The pastors, with few exceptions, were present with helpful messages and the laymen from some of the charges were present with interesting and encouraging addresses.

"The Flying Squadron," Drs. Johnson, Newland, Powell and Smith, representing the "World Service Missionary Movement," brought fine messages and much valuable information.

Dr. Bishop of Murphy Collegiate Institute, and Dr. Kilburn of the Tennessee Wesleyan College, represented these schools, delivering addresses which were up to the usual high standard of these educators. We extend to them an invitation to come again next year.

On June 27th Rev. LeRoy A. Martin of Chattanooga, Tenn., coming as a representative of our beloved Bishop Thirkield in the interest of "World Service," joined the District Superintendent in an itinerary of the district. Six special meetings were conducted in which Bro. Martin rendered good service, bringing valuable information on this truly great subject. Three other meetings were conducted covering practically the whole district.

According to reports to the Quarterly Conference our Sunday Schools have advanced in attendance and quality of work. The spiritual interests of the church have had due emphasis, as is evidenced by the fact that of the six hundred and fifteen persons received into the church, about eighty per cent came through the Sunday School.

The work of the Epworth League is better than last year. More interest is manifest in the regular program, and the special meetings are more largely attended. The development of leadership is in evidence where the League properly functions.

The Junior League is doing a great work and is training the membership in the essential things which they as young Christians should know, and under the guidance of consecrated teachers Christian character is being developed.

The young life of the church is being well cared for, where we have organizations, but there are many children in this mountain section that are receiving no training in spiritual things, for there are several communities in which there is no organized church, and it appears that without an organized church there can be no permanent Christian development. These people are of Methodist descent and are looking to the Methodist Episcopal Church for help, and the church must in some way carry to them the Gospel of Christ. We must not fail because this is our opportunity and the time of their great need.

As to my own work, I have given my time to the district. I have conducted one hundred and four quarterly meetings, presiding at the same number of quarterly conferences, have preached two hundred and sixty-three sermons, an average of a little more than five a week, attended five special meetings, made itineraries of some of the circuits and have traveled in the discharge of my duties about six thousand miles. I have found it a pleasure to be associated with these consecrated pastors and laymen in the service of a worthy people.

Finally, brethren, though conscious of many difficulties, with an unyielding faith in God, we are facing toward the rising sun and his light dispells the darkness from hill top and valley and mountain gorge, we trust the Divine light shall dispell the gloom of sin and the morning break upon us, "when the sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in his wing, and the mountains shall break forth into singing, the little hills leap for joy and the trees of the field clap their hands" as the Church of God shall take possession of her own.

JOHNSON CITY DISTRICT

W. L. OLIVER, Superintendent

Twenty-seven pastoral charges, covering in whole or in part thirty-two counties, comprise the Johnson City District. Six of these are stations and the other twenty-one have from three to nine appointments. We began this year's work with a pastor at each of these twenty-seven places and all have remained at their post of duty save one. The Rev. H. A. Gamble, appointed to the Rogersville charge, served until March, then asked the Bishop to release him from further duties this year, and the Rev. Orin Marshall, a young man of promise and a local preacher, assumed the responsibilities and finished the year's work on that charge.

God has been good to us this year in that none of the ministers of this district, in active service have died, yet the death angel has visited in our midst, and some of the homes of the ministers have been saddened. The wife of the Rev. S. G. Ketron, a retired minister and a supply pastor, went to her reward. An infant in the home of the Rev. Dewey Jenkins, and a brother of the Rev. E. O. Woodyard were taken away.

The Rev. N. K. Rowe, at the last session of the Holston Conference was granted, on account of declining health the supernumerary relation and living within the bounds of the Johnson City District, fell asleep in Jesus April 30th.

Who can stay the hand of death? It comes to all, but those who suffer can have the sustaining grace of "Him who doeth all things well."

The revival fires have burned all the year. The pastors in most instances acting as their own evangelists have preached the Gospel and it has been the power of God unto salvation, and, as a result the reports will show about 1600 conversions and 1000 accessions. Time will not permit me to speak of all the pastors who deserve special mention, but the Rev. S. A. Hopper of the Telford charge leads the district in the number of conversions and accessions. His report will show 269 conversions and 186 accessions to the church. The people whom he has served so well have shown their appreciation by paying his salary in full and giving him a donation of more than three hundred dollars.

A number of new Epworth League chapters have been organized throughout the district this year, and the young people seem to have an interest in the work. The Sunday Schools will show an increase in membership and average attendance and the spiritual condition of the district is very good. However, the devil is at work, and the ministers appointed to these twenty-seven pastoral charges at this session of the conference will find plenty of work to combat the ravages of sin making inroads upon our forces.

The Johnson City Church has financed the building of a mission known as the Normal Heights Church. A building, now ready for dedication, which will meet the demands of that community, has been erected and a church organized with twenty members.

The Greeneville people, also, builded a mission church on Highland Avenue and services are being held for the people of that community.

On the Mountain City Circuit, Clifton's Chapel was destroyed by fire last Easter a year ago. Now on the same site, a new building, made of river rock will soon be ready for dedication.

Our church and school on Webb's Creek, Pittman Center charge, was burned a year ago, and now there stands a building with four rooms for church and school purposes which will be dedicated Oct. 25th. The Fall Branch Circuit has completed a beautiful new parsonage of six rooms, now ready for the pastor who will be appointed to that charge this year.

At Unicoi a lot has been purchased and the people of that section are looking forward to the building of a church. Elizabethton bought a lot.

Our Mountain school at Pittman Center is doing a great work. This year shops for woodworking and textiles and also a small hospital have been added to that community center.

Miss Wesp, supervisor of women's work at Pittman Center, felt led of God to go up Copeland Creek and in the back room of a mountain cabin organized a Sunday School. Some of the people of that community had never been in any kind of a religious service until the day that Sunday School was organized. Now there stands in that community Bonwell's Chapel dedicated to the Worship of God, August 30, 1925, by Dr. E. A. Bishop, assisted by Dr. J. S. Burnette.

Because of a debt our parsonage on the Limestone Circuit was almost under the hammer, but the people under the efficient leadership of their pastor, raised the money and saved the building from being sold. Thanks be to God for the heroic men and women of this district who are making the sacrifice and doing these wonderful things for Jesus' sake.

For buildings, improvements and old indebtedness the reports will show about $25,000 have been raised.

Pastors salaries will show an advance over last year of about $1700, and most of these will be paid in full, as will also the Episcopal Fund and Conference Claimant apportionments. As to World Service some of the charges will show an advance while some will not meet the amount paid last year. I think the totals will compare favorably with last year's report.

The pastors have done well. Considering the dry weather and shortage of crops the people have responded liberally. For our failures we are sorry, for our successes we give glory to God.

As to my own labors I have held all my quarterly conferences in person save five. Have traveled over eight thousand miles. Have written seven hundred and eighty-two letters and cards. Have preached, prayed and tried to keep sweet. The Lord has abundantly blessed me and I am happy in His service.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. OLIVER.

KNOXVILLE DISTRICT

J. W. BOLING, District Superintendent

The merry-go-round has rotated without accident and we are at the window for passes or tickets as the verdict of fortune may decree. The going has been merry, however, because we have tried to follow the example of Him who said: "My Father worketh hitherto and I work." Our joy has been, not in the evasion, but in the assumption of the task at hand.

The policies directing our work were determined by the immediate problems to be solved and by the causes which were responsible for those problems. The only sound philosophy of successful approach is to cut the tap root at the source.

Even though the Kingdom be a spiritual kingdom there is a material foundation upon which the super-structure must rise. The author of our spiritual being habited us in dwellings that can be seen. Our physical anchorage relates us no less vitally to the visible than does our spiritual anchorage identify us with the invisible kingdom. The unsolved problem of civilization is the problem of the correct disposition of property. Louis Hall, the expert guide of the Adirondacks, said: "Aristocracy says, 'All yours is mine,' democracy says, 'All mine is my own,' socialism says, 'All mine is yours.'" Josiah Strong, the greatest Christian socialist of the last generation, said: "All that a Christian spends upon himself which thereby contributes more largely than otherwise to the Kingdom of God, is legitimately spent—anything beyond that is an act of usury." The occasion has been superb this year for the sowing of seeds unto the golden harvest of sound Christian beneficence. The unprecedented drought this year, surpassing anything in the memory or in the recorded history of man, has provided the occasion for us to tutor our people in the sound principles of frugality. Thus they have been reminded that we had the lean years which would have witnessed the pinched mawed kine lowing around the empty corn cribs of Pharaoh, but for the wisdom which hedged against disaster in the years of plenty, ever since the day when the shrewed sons of Jacob filled their bags with corn which had spilled over from seasons of unusual bounty. To pinch the claims of the kingdom in a season of scarcity is as inconsistent as the prodigal waste which squanders heedlessly in seasons of plenty. Thus we have met, with a measure of success, the defiance of an unprecedented and unyielding difficulty. As a result the promise at this writing engenders the hope that most every pastor will be paid in full and that the benevolent and connectional interests of the church will be saved from the disasters which were augured by the ugly clouds which draped the horizon. If we should slip a trifle we shall even then give thanks to God that He has afforded us the heroism that transposed an apparently inevitable landslide into a mere slip of the toe.

Sadness came to us this year in the decease of Rev. John Sanders, an honored and unusually efficient member of this conference.

The conditions just described coupled with the fact that during the last few years the district has fostered a vigorous campaign of building and improvements have necessitated a pause in the projection of new enterprises of this kind. And yet surprising achievements have been wrought. One of our circuits has spent on improvements and on indebtedness an amount in excess of the pastors salary. A remote church, on a seven-point circuit, in the lap of the mountains, has reconstructed its building to meet the demands of the growing congregation. Another congregation on a circuit has reconstructed the building erected before the Civil War. Fire destroyed a building on another circuit but a new structure is well on the way. The babe in the household, just organized a few days prior to our last Annual Conference, is now in a building of its own, strategically located on a beautiful lot fronting 100 feet and running back 200 feet in one of the most thriving suburbs of Knoxville. There is a membership now of one hundred fifty, a Sunday School, and other organizations, in keeping with the size of the church and membership. A budget of approximately eighteen hundred dollars has been pledged for next year. Another growing church in a suburban community has paid its entire indebtedness of sixteen hundred dollars and made other advances in substantial equivalents. Another church, located in a small town and which is part of a circuit paying about one thousand dollars salary, is paying the interest on five thousand dollars this year and at the same time slicing one thousand dollars from the principal of its indebtedness. A suburban church in Knoxville with only a basement and roof, has paid three thousand five hundred dollars on indebtedness, raised more than four thousand dollars in notes to apply in the completion of the main auditorium. This church is growing by leaps and bounds. The regular Sunday morning offering runs from sixty to one hundred dollars. This is a sturdy prospect considering the fact that the representative of one of our great boards and the presiding officer of our conference predicted two years ago that we "had taken off more than we could masticate." This church was left to be supplied at that session of the conference as could only be expected in the face of such glaring predictions. The District Superintendent selected a young pastor from a circuit paying one thousand dollars and handed him this quadratic equation and did what he could in aiding the youngster to keep the pencil whittled sharp. The sequel—part of it—has been registered. Another church has purchased a house and lot at a cost of sixty-five hundred dollars and has paid five thousand one hundred fifty dollars of the amount this year. This property is used for parsonage at present and becomes a part of the structural development of one of the coming great churches in the South in the immediate future activities of this adventurous congregation. A down-town city church has reconstructed and re-decorated its building at a cost of eight thousand dollars. One of our thrifty young churches dedicated on the last Sunday of this conference year, having raised fourteen thousand dollars in making ready for this splendid achievement. That puts this church in a class with the many really great opportunities of our Zion in Knoxville. The fourteen thousand dollars raised on that day covers all indebtedness, including debt on a four thousand dollar parsonage when added to gift from the Board of Church Extension.

One of our little mission churches in the city has finished the excavation and equipped an assembly room at a cost of about one thousand dollars. Plans are in process of development for a modern plant in a station church in one of our coming little cities. The ladies aid has approximately two thousand dollars in the bank as a modest beginning toward their share of this enterprise. Among the seven and more wonders is that of one of the oldest churches in this territory, having outgrown its name as well as its old equipment this congregation has taken on the name of the suburb whose need it is designed to serve and is in process now of constructing a new church building at an approximate cost of forty thousand dollars. This church has negotiated a fifty year lease on a small plot of its surplus real estate which really enhances the value and adds to the appearance of the surroundings. This, together with the cash and subscriptions obtained, virtually secures that portion of the total cost which the congregation assumes. This structure will be under roof by holidays and the congregation will be in the completed building by next spring.

The pastors who have not shared in these items have done in most instances things just as meritorious, though in different fields of activity. Some even approaching the spectacular in results for World Service organization among our young people and children, organization of the women, development of laymen in sustained and effective devotion to better business policies, deeper convictions and more loyal consecration to the task set before us, and indeed for every other phase of kingdom concern.

The growth in the organization of women for Missionary endeavor, ladies aid auxiliaries, stewardship and tithing promotion, spiritual invigoration, and the dissemination of the gospel of more efficient and enlightened activities, has been stressed and realized in no inconsequential way. The missionary spirit and the missionary activity have kept pace as the heights of victory were scaled and held. This glowing tribute will be sustained by the generous reports and vouchers which the true and heroic pastors lug to this conference in the pockets of the proverbial clerical attire.

Our district conference was marked in all features of the splendid program. Our connectional boards made a fine contribution by sending to that conference Dr. Smith, Dr. Newland, Dr. Powell and Dr. Johnson.

With a deep conviction that the youth and childhood are and must be the virgin soil out of which the seed of the Kingdom lifts the most abundant and vital exponents for tomorrow's conquests, we have majored in our endeavors to pre-empt these preferred assets for the Master's use. While struggling hand to hand with the problems of the church we have kept a steady eye upon the sources from whence they came. No final solution of these problems can be attained apart from the proper training and correct indoctrination of the youth and childhood, the heirs apparent to the kingdom of our future zion. We are fundamentalists—we believe that the fundamentals of a church worthy of the most high God and of His son, Jesus our Lord, are in the potential gifts of the rising generation. We are evolutionists—and unless we be industrious husbandmen, the orthodox co-workers with God, these fundamentals will never rise "through boundless transmutations" unto that full-orbed glory unto which they were born and unto which they were fore-ordained even from the foundations of the world.

This has been a year of unusual success in the standardized revival program of the district. No year in the history of the district has witnessed more marked swelling of revival tides than have ported on the prayer and faith of some of our churches this year. Reports of the faithful pastors will register achievements in numbers converted at our altars and in numbers taking membership evidencing beyond question our faith in and our loyalty to the spasmodic upheaval upon which the church has habitually pinned her faith unto the coming of the kingdom. However, a sane invoice can but convict and convince us that reliance alone upon fits and jerks leads to delusion, and that while depending alone upon a two weeks campaign once a year as a method of bringing in the new Jerusalem, America is becoming more pagan each day as a reward for our folly. So that while emphasizing the revival with all the fervor of the early evangelists even in the Apostolic church, we have magnified the example of him who approached individuals and wrought into the moral fiber of their sanctified personalities the winning and dependable convictions and attitudes guaranteeing the achievements for which our Lord taught us to pray. All of our approaches therefore have been at the strategic points—the cross-roads around which revolve the causes and alike the cure of our difficulties. These policies and efforts alike are the offspring of our prayer as earnestly the directing hand of Him who is the source of all light and has been sought. As the author He has graciously and wonderfully blessed the plan and the effort. Our hearts go out in fullness of gratitude that thus we have been permitted to share in the wonders of his grace.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

To the Holston Conference, assembled in Annual Session:

Whereas, Our great Methodist Episcopal Church recognizes the Epworth League organization as vital to the most effective and efficient training of our young people for definite service in all departments of our church and its work; and,

Whereas, The Epworth League Institute, held in Murphy Collegiate Institute at Sevierville, Tenn., during the first week in August, each year, is recognized as the medium for stimulating enthusiasm, broadening the vision for service, enriching the social life, deepening the spiritual life, and focusing the attention of our young people on particular vocations of life work, therefore,

Be It Resolved: That we endorse the work of the Holston Epworth League Institute, and pledge the support of our pastors thereto, and

That we urge all our pastors to so arrange their programs for the year's work that Institute Week may be kept open, in order to permit them to attend the Institute with the representative young people from their charges, for we believe that in so doing we will be furthering the work of the Kingdom and solidifying the foundation of our church of tomorrow.

REPORT OF RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

The Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in its Eighty-second Session, at Newport, Tennessee, desires to express its deep and sincere appreciation of the very valuable services of those of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Newport, to the pastor, Rev. J. W. Broyles and all who in any way made a contribution toward the welfare and comfort of the members and friends of the conference.

We wish to express our gratitude for the presence of Bishop H. Lester Smith and for his wise administration and most helpful addresses.

We desire to express our thanks to the speakers who have appeared on the program, among whom are our beloved resident Bishop Wilbur

P. Thirkield for his great Missionary address; Dr. William S. Bovard; Dr. Luther E. Lovejoy, and Bishop R. J. Cooke.

We appreciate the work of the Methodist Book Concern in placing the latest publications on display that we may review them with a view to further study.

We recognize the fine work done by all the conference officers in the discharge of their duties and desire to thank them for their services.

We thank the public press for their very generous space given in reporting the sessions of the conference.

We deeply and most humbly thank our Heavenly Father for His loving care and guiding spirit in all the affairs of the conference, and to Him we pledge ourselves anew to the great work whereunto He hath called us.

Respectfully submitted,

SIDNEY E. STRINGHAM, Chairman,
NOEL H. CARDWELL,
RICHARD M. MILLARD.

COMMITTEE ON WORLD SERVICE

We, your Committee on World Service, wish to express our gratification in view of the record of progress which has been made in Holston Conference in recent years. In church membership, in value of church property, in amount paid for pastoral support, consistent gains have been recorded from year to year. The first year of the Centenary period brought an unprecedented advance in contributions to Centenary and Apportioned Benevolences. We note with regret the marked decline which has taken place in our giving to the benevolent program of the church since that time. We do well to face the facts concerning our present situation, in order that we may see the need for cultivation of the Missionary spirit in our churches and for renewed emphasis upon the importance, to our church, of its entire benevolent program. Some of these facts are as follows:

Last year, while making an advance in amount paid to pastoral support, our conference showed a decline of 42% in its contributions to World Service and Apportioned Benevolences.

Twenty-two charges in the conference made no contribution to World Service last year.

Our area stands at the foot of the list among the areas of the church in per cent of apportionment paid to World Service during the first seven months following the close of the Centenary period, and our conference makes no better showing than the Area as a whole, having paid only 28% of its apportionment, while the record for the whole church was 45%.

In view of these facts, what conclusions are to be drawn? Are our people so embarrassed financially as to be unable to support the benevolences of the church? If so, how is it possible to make a substantial advance each year in contributions to the support of the local church?

Are our apportionments too high? How can we say so when we are putting less than one-tenth of the tithe into the benevolences and paid less than $1.60 per member to general benevolences last year?

Our conclusion is that the greatest need is for patient, continued cultivation of the missionary spirit throughout our conference. Where our people are informed and have the cause on their hearts, they contribute willingly. As a rule, where the pastor is informed concerning the world program of the church and carries its progress on his heart, his interest is reflected in the reports which come from his charge.

We believe that a continued campaign of education should be carried on in all our churches, to prevent disastrous slumps and to make unnecessary special drives which may be followed by marked reaction, if the people have not become intelligently interested in the causes to which they have contributed.

In carrying on this campaign of education we suggest that District Superintendents, and pastors keep in close touch with all phases of our World program, through attendance upon such meetings as shall be held for that purpose and by careful reading of our church papers and all other literature that gives information on the subject. Our own interest is usually in keeping with our knowledge of the work; we can not give out information which we do not have and we can not arouse in others an interest which is not in our own hearts. The fact that we were once interested and enthusiastic does not mean that our enthusiasm will continue without constant renewal through unceasing touch with the needs, failures, successes and problems of the field.

We feel that there is great need for informing and inspiring messages from the pulpit on world evangelism. We recommend that District Superintendents and pastors preach more frequently on missionary themes.

It is not enough that the people make their pledges and their payments to the benevolences. Genuine interest on their part is of greater importance than their money, for they will not continue to pay to a cause in which they are not really interested. Let us continue to study, to inform ourselves and our people. "Line upon line, precept upon precept," from pulpit and press; through the Sunday School and the Women's Missionary Societies, through prayer meeting and pastoral visiting let us cultivate the missionary spirit which is the spirit of Him who said "Other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd."

O. R. TARWATER, Chairman.

BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

The work of this Conference Board has been to recommend and approve the various maintenance and church extension projects of the conference for and from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension at Philadelphia.

From this source, thirty-eight pastors of this conference have received aid on their salaries this past year.

During the Centenary period three dollars of aid was received for work in Holston territory for every dollar that was given to the Board from this conference; but as has already been explained by Dr. Canover of Philadelphia, there have been no funds for church extension projects this past year, due to the lessened giving of the church to the World Service program. However, from funds credited to certain districts and not heretofore used, some building projects have been aided.

The finest project of the Board is that of the Highland Division, under the supervision of Dr. J. S. Burnette. This includes the large project at Pittman Center, and school and community work at ten other points.

Aid has been granted the three educational institutions of the conference for maintaining Directors of Religious Education and Rural Leadership on their faculties.

This Board also looks to the future. It suggests to the members of Holston Conference that they acquaint themselves with their people with the extent and nature of the aid which the connectional Board is giving this conference. It is also urged that the conference develop a spirit of larger co-operation with the Philadelphia Board, that it may better understand and use the helpfulness which that Board is pledged to give.

The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has been assigned the Chattanooga Area for cultivation of World Service interests during the coming year. Its representatives have already asked the members of the Holston Conference Cabinet how it can best serve in this capacity; and it has formulated a program of local church cultivation in response to the answers given.

Respectfully submitted,

R. M. MILLARD,
R. L. STAPLETON,
R. A. KILBURN,

Committee from the Conference Board.

NOTE—You observe a balance of cash in the bank in amount of $497.60 to the credit of the Conference. Four hundred and fifty-eight dollars of this is for Conference Claimants which was sent to me several days after Conference and after distribution had been made by the Conference Board of Stewards. The Chairman and other members of the Conference Stewards have authorized me to place same on interest since it cannot be distributed now. The remaining $39.60 is last year's and this year's cash balance from charges. It is hoped those who send in money late will observe the inconvenience to the conference officers and to Conference Claimants. It is written into the Treasurer's report for the minutes but money left on my hands.

WILLIAM F. PITTS, Treasurer,
2534 Jefferson Avenue,
Knoxville, Tennessee.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

Whereas, the Tennessee Wesleyan College will need for the scholastic year 1925-1926—the first year of its history—more money to meet current expenses than it now has secured.

Therefore, Resolved that the Executive Committee of its Board of Trustees, do on this day, September 28, 1925, make a strong appeal and an earnest request that the Board of Education of the Holston Conference ask said Conference in its annual session next month to request that each pastor give the people of his charge, on or before June 1, 1926, an opportunity to make a free-will contribution, over and above the World Service apportionment, to help meet the important financial needs of the College.

The report was adopted.
